About Us

'Likho Shaan Se..' (Write with Pride), as the tagline of the company suggests, the company has been incorporated with an objective to provide writing instruments which makes the writer proud of it. We not only wish to provide quality pens at affordable prices to the consumers but also ensure that they derive the same kind of pride which one gets by writing with pens provided by companies such as Parker, Waterman or Sheaffer. Thus, with mass pens we target to provide the same value as given by premium pens. In order to achieve the above objective we are manufacturing pens made with superior quality dies moulds and raw-materials. These dies and moulds have been made under the supervision of experienced professionals and by the best die-makers in the industry. Raw-materials of finest quality are sourced from the leading vendors in the industry. Our manufacturing facilities are located in the sub-urban areas of Kolkata where products are manufactured under strict quality control norms and tested by qualified professionals to ensure that they meet international quality standards. Indian stationary market is expected to grow at a Compounded Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 20% over the next three years. Students' category which forms our primary target segment is the major consumer of the Indian Writing Instruments Industry and given the thrust of Central government on the education sector, this segment is bound to grow further. Also, the exports of the...
