We are a venerated manufacturer, supplier and exporter of CYLINDER LINER used across the domestic and global markets. Our product line is CYLINDER LINER for, Diesel Engines, Automobiles, Truck, Tractor and Air & Gas Compressors.

About Us

Established in the year 1974, New Shakti Engineering Works are a reputed company that manufactures, supplies and exports Automotive Components. Our range is developed from ferrous and non-ferrous material and adheres to the highest TUV Rheinland ISO 9001:2008 standards. The products we offer are used in tractors, tanks, pumps, diesel engines, automobiles and air & gas compressors. Due to excellent quality of our products, we have been able to serve specific requirements of the clients in all instances. Some of the features that attract clients are good build quality, resistance to wear and tear, excellent performance and long service life.

Our engineers and technicians work in close coordination with each other to develop the range in accordance with industry standards. The quality controllers make sure that the range is flawless through various tests that are conducted as per the guidelines of the authorities. To improve the range, researchers carry out several experiments, and the storekeepers store the same in systematic manner. They all work in tandem to make sure that the finished products delivered to the clients, like Mazda, Mercedes, Benz, Toyota, Volvo and Tata, are flawless.

We are headed by our manager, who possesses the requisite industry experience and expertise to direct us in the successful completion of our endeavors. Under his guidance, we have grown leaps and bounds and create a niche...
