About Us

In a world where marketing determines success or failure, and communication plays a vital role in creating or moulding human perceptions, there is a need to approach the target market with the right suite of marketing and communication services. At Vamos, aptly named so, we help our clients to approach their target markets and deliver their offerings with confidence. Headquartered in Kochi with dedicated branches all over Kerala, Vamos is an award winning Public Relations (PR) and Integrated Marketing Communications group with specialised PR and Communications verticals. Initiated in 2012 with the aim to provide effective, integrated public relations services, we have forged our way forward by diversifying through specialised units in Entertainment Marketing, in-house publishing, Corporate Social Responsibility and Business Events. The respect, trust and admiration from clients coming from a multitude of industry verticals and from different parts of India have put us on the fast track to be one of the leading PR Agency and communications group in Kerala. Our network encompasses people from varied disciplines work in close collaboration to create an effective, integrated communication and marketing strategy for our clients, and help implement them effectively. This makes us one of the leading PR Agency and marketing communications groups Kerala has seen in recent times. Whatever be the scale and scope of the marketing communications effort required, our network acts...
