About Us

Alibag was developed in the 17th century by Sarkhel Kanhoji Angre, the Naval chief of King Shivaji's kingdom.

For a place like Alibaug, which is full of nature, beaches all season is good, Still to beat the heat one prefers summer vacation, and some in winter. In rainy seasons (Monsoon), this place is a peaceful tourist destination to enjoy greenery and nature in village environment far away from city pollution.

Alibag is an idyllic town on the western coast of India, known as the Konkan region. It lies on almost the same latitude as the southern tip of Mumbai and is very close to this tip across the narrow strip of the Arabian Sea.

There are few fine hotels and resorts that merit the reputation of offering you standards and grace like no other. Only our best serves you with unwavering taste, timeless sophistication and warm courtesy. This is where hospitality meets simple elegance.
