An ISO 9001-2008 company, we are manufacturers of quality range of veterinary medicines for Livestock & Poultry. These are quality tested on well-defined parameters before being delivered to our clients.
About Us

Incepted in the year 1999, Vetco India is one of the leading manufacturers of veterinary medicines & feed supplements. We are also known for our large product line and customer-centric approach in this industry. Owing to our dynamic production policy, we formulate the medicines and review it at regular intervals of time. We work in close co-ordination with the Indian farmer to make sure that our products have been manufactured keeping the farmer in mind. In fact, our goal is to make available to the Indian farmer a great range of products that are effective and affordable. This enhances and maintains our status as a modern production unit. Altogether, our prime concern centered on enhancement in productivity, reliability and cost effectiveness to users. We manufacture precisely formulated products that are convenient for the farmer and also assure them high quality. In this manner, we have established a large and loyal clientele and a repeat customer base.
