We are one of the preeminent organizations, engaged in trading electronic, solar and fire safety products. In addition to the aforementioned products, we also provide our clients with matchless safety equipment.
About Us

Established in the year 2003, we, Vidyut Enterprises, Nashik, are one of the leading traders of Electronic, Solar and Fire Safety Products. Additionally, we also provide our clients with Safety Equipment. We are based at Nashik and have struck a chord with the clients by providing them with what our competitors have failed to, exceptionally qualitative products. Legally, we hold the status of that of a Sole Proprietorship firm. Nevertheless, we know what it takes to keep the clients glued to us and have therefore succeeded in mustering a huge clientele for ourselves. Ours is a quality-focused organization, the one that can go to any extent to ensure that only faultless products are passed on to the clients. Keeping this in mind, we have some relevant measures, sourcing the products from only renowned vendors being one of them. There are plenty of vendors in the market but we choose only those, who promise to deliver quality. Of course, their market credibility matters too and that is why our team thoroughly analyzes this and other crucial aspects before zeroing in on the vendors. Our team does a lot more things, like ascertaining the quality of our products and finding out the defects, if any. For this purpose, it takes strength, durability and many other predefined parameters into account. It is our sheer fortune that team is quite passionate about its work and duly understands all its responsibilities. Our team...
