About Us

The three wide parameters that categorize modern business computing requirements are speed, power and cost-efficiency. It has always been our endeavor to integrate the above in providing office and design Automation solutions at the best price-performance ratio. We offer a whole range of IBM compatible computer systems & peripherals to encounter every need which will expand and grow with the growing needs of your organization. Vignesh technologies was formed in June 1996 by dedicated professionals having a combined experience of six year in the IT industry. In a short period, we have entered into the basic sales and services of office automation products i.e. Fax machine, EPABX system, XEROX machine etc. Our major success has been in computer Hardware, Networks, Internet, and Software development.
