A leading Export firm, Vinain Enterprises, is an integrated manufacturer and distributor of leather goods. Established in 1992, Vinain Enterprises is widely recognized manufacturer of leather bags, wallets.

About Us

Adhar Sahni, a qualified leather technician from Nene College Northampton and City & Guilds London, made a humble beginning in 1987. What started as a free-lancing firm making small lots of finished leathers on orders from local exporters has now grown up to a large size vertically integrated company that now produces leather and finished leather goods for clients worldwide.

As a manufacturing unit, we offer an entire line of affordable handbag, SLG , office and Luggage items and finished leather with no compromise in the essential quality. This has been one major reason, why we are being counted upon by major European and Japanese buyers as an important manufacturing unit out of Kolkata.

Our goal is to provide workplace for products that are to sold all over the world. Designed with the finest materials and crafted with premium workmanship, available at the most competitive prices. Regular training of staff and workers is held to upgrade and appraise of latest techniques and sebsibilities of bag making. The trust and satisfaction of our clients are our greatest assets and we never compromise on compliabce and quality. Currently, our customers are worldwide - Italy, France. Germany, Russia, South Africa, Japan, India.
