About Us

Starting in 1995 with leathers, later we entered into manufacturing of leather garments. Presently Viralli have two garment factories in Chennai and Kanchipuram supported by as many captive tanneries at Ranipet to produce leathers for in house production. Imports are sourced from various Euro zones like Germany, Sweden and Middle Eastern countries, are processed for the production. Premium leathers with various trending textures go into fabrication of leather garments. Stringent quality parameters set out by global health agencies are routinely met. These factories are managed by professional HRD team at all levels with 400+ employees under the guidance of Mr.P.Murali and administration of Mr. J.Ramanakumar.

MISSION STATEMENT To reach excellence, practice fairness and meet transparency levels.
To satisfy customers, raise employees' lifestyle and engage stake holders.
To achieve outstanding product quality, smart service and create value.
To innovate and absorb new technologies.
To sustain and enhance the green house effect.
