Manufacturer of handloom scarves, jacquard scarves, double sided scarves etc.

About Us

V.P. International is a professionally managed organization having its own manufacturing, sourcing, finishing & packaging unit exporting to reputed buyers all over the world.

V.P. International was formed owing to the vision and dynamic leadership of our director Mr. Vikas Ahuja, who after staying in the United Kingdom for almost 10 years, understood the global markets well and came back to India with the sole vision of bridging the gap between highly quality conscious and price savvy foreign buyers & wealth of Indian raw materials. He with the blessings of his Guru 'Shri Sai' was able to establish a highly successful enterprise V.P. International, a recognized corporate brand today with the immense support and dedication of his wife Preeti Ahuja and best wishes from their parents and well wishers.

The credit for the success of the company also goes to the dedicated team members and staff who with their skills and mutual co-ordination led the company to greater heights in the international market.

Our Mission Statement

We firmly believe that it is the dedication and hard work of all of us including our buyers, our craftsmen & our suppliers striving continuously to achieve higher quality standards in the lowest production cost that enables us to outperform our competitors.

Quality

Our products are tested on varying parameters by accredited testing labs like SGS and ITS to...
