About Us

Wayanad Social Service Society (WSSS) is a registered charitable society and a secular voluntary organization established in the year 1974. It is the official social service organization of the Catholic Diocese of Mananthavady. Ever since its inception in 1974, it has been a major objective of WSSS to form village level Peoples Organizations in order to empower the poor and weaker sections in the society. Social Welfare Society formed in different rural areas is the Community Based Peoples Organization (CBO) to organize and to undertake development interventions and to initiate the process of empowerment of the people. It aims at Socio-economic empowerment of the target group consisting of tribals, women, small and marginal farmers through participatory development interventions. Wayanad district encompasses the hilly region lying along the Western Ghats at the North East of Kerala State. It is known as land of plantations and spices, the crops grown there in unique agro climate enjoying superiority in the international market. On the contrary, the small and marginal farmers who produce them stand largely deprived with low yield and poor prices as compared to the high investment and hard labour. In this respect, majority of the local farming community is constituted of agricultural settlers migrated from elsewhere and the entire population lags behind practically in all aspects of development. The primary sector of agriculture is still distanced from...
