About Us

Weavetex has lived through its years of toils and discipline that it takes to mould an idea into reality. As it inspired the undaunted Mr. Y.K Jain spirit of Mr. Yogender Jain, the days and years lost itself in shaping what is known today Weavetex. Having started in 1969 there is only looking forward to the company which had only couple of Handlooms, producing Home-Furnishing for local stores and later for Exports, today has two most efficient units for making Home-Textiles for the pioneers in the global trade. Today the village Khekra has an address which runs through the computers of progressive upmarket clients. Its fabrics fill the home with colors that spell life and luxury and cloths the customers with happiness woven with zeal and dedication. Weavetex deploys all the efforts to update itself on technology and qualitative weaving of fabrics-by way of market-research and standards that are needed.

Looking at its growth today it feels the beginning has taken its roots and foundation for a bright future is laid with pride. Everyday swings-up with more ideas and requirements that are running itself into tomorrow with unknown energy. Whatever is available for research by way of Export-seminars and workshops, Lab-update for colourway, CAD-CAM etc. are sought after to fill its requirements of growth and development.
