About Us

In the holiday capital of India, Goa! stands the White Brick Wall. A multi designer store that is an amalgamation of old school charm, modern hues, contemporary design and pure artistic joy.

Conceptualized by Liesel Duarte and Shamoli Barreto, it is an ambitious attempt to redesign lifestyle in Goa. The White brick Wall is spread over 839 square feet with two levels, ample display space, three show windows and an exclusive space for any designer that believes that they truly deserve it. We aim at stocking anything related to design, fashion and art- pret, home and fashion accessories, lifestyle pieces, handmade products to name a few.

Our vision is to create a sound platform in Goa for an impressive collective of designers and share with the Goan audience, the opportunity to appreciate the aesthetics of art, fashion, cutting edge designs and a store experience like never before.

We look forward to sharing our space with a handpicked mix of new, exciting and classic contemporary designers. We will provide marketing and advertising support, guidance on understanding market trends as well as tie up with various avenues for sale that will reach a wider audience. If we believe in a product we will find a way to sell it.
