About Us

There is only one broadcast and television entity in India that can take care of all your requirements - for filming, transfers, conversions, coverage, editing, broadcasting and the like. Wilderness Films India Ltd. has the widest range of formats, be it Betacam SP, Digital Betacam, HDV, DVCAM or even HDCAM, and we're all industry professionals.

We have 90 broadcast camera units in-house, 20 editing units, 50 full-time and 50 freelance staff, a capacity for up to a dozen professional field crews, available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, equipped with roaming cellphones or sat-phones. We also have vehicles, editing facilities and VTR's of all formats (PAL and NTSC), tapestock, producers, directors, an in-house travel agent (for your air and ground transportation, even helicopter charters), satellite uplinking - the works.

We have the largest international production coordination and locations network in south Asia, and can provide camera units, crews, ground support and coordination, as per your requirements. We've been in the business for nineteen years and are a reputed public limited company.

Be it an international production that requires a partner or an entirely Indian show, we have the solution for you, with our production department producing several international documentaries each year. We've shot on Everest for an entire four month period, and in just about every corner of the Himalaya over the past two decades. Our unique stock...
