About Us

Dr. Ashutosh Gupta is a well-known and leading Dental Surgeon in East Delhi India. He has completed his B.D.S. in 2007 from Meerut since then he has made his name in dentistry in Delhi. Being interested in Cosmetic Dentistry and Conservative practice, he has attended a number of conferences, lectures, seminars, workshops and hands-on programmes to flourish his skills and knowledge.

Cure & Care Dental Clinic is a place where he strives hard to provide excellent dental care in a comfortable, friendly, and professional environment. This environment enables him to treat each and every patient that comes to his clinic with exceptional care. As a result, he is able to achieve outstanding dental outcomes.

He does everything he can to make his patients feel comfortable about his treatment. This starts by involving his patients with the treatment process, and explaining how he can help save their teeth. He utilizes state-of-the-art technology such as operating microscopes, fiber optics, ultrasonic instrumentation, and digital imaging to deliver the highest quality of care. Advanced technologies along with specialized techniques gives him a very accurate view of the tooth, and allow him to treat a patient very quickly and comfortably.
