About Us

Bringing the virtual world to our real world within a device where everyone can use is what XploreAR does. Make your customer explore your product in their own world with augmented reality apps. With just an app, we bring all your static images to real life by augmenting videos, 3D models, direct links to the website where the user can gain a full understanding and knowledge about your product which leads to high social impact and increase in your sales. Make your product reach the customers everywhere in an interactive marketing way.
